Liability Waiver and Release with Consent for Emergency Medical Treatment

I, the undersigned, agree and do hereby release from all liability and hold harmless the Krotona Institute of Theosophy, also known as “Krotona” and any of its agents and/or employees from any claim for liability, injury, or economic loss sustained by me while being a guest in the accommodations on the Krotona grounds, attending any organized events, or participating in any volunteer work, community service work, or contract work.

While on the Krotona premises, I agree to abide by all the rules and regulations of Krotona while on the property.

I further grant Krotona explicit permission to authorize emergency medical care, first aid, or CPR if I become unconscious or am unable to make decisions.

I agree to cover all costs associated with emergency response, such as ambulance fees, hospital bills, and medical treatment.

In the event of a medical emergency, I agree to release Krotona or its representatives from liability for any injuries resulting from the emergency response or "negligent rescue" attempts (e.g., fractured ribs from performing CPR).
